

Instructions for Interagency Record of Request - A, G, or NATO Dependent Employment Authorization or Change/Adjustment To/From A, G, or NATO Status

Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-566
OMB No. 1615-0027
Expires 03/31/2027

What Is the Purpose of Form I-566?

Form I-566 allows certain persons to request employment authorization or change/adjustment of status. Such benefits may be available to:

1. An eligible dependent of an A, G, or NATO nonimmigrant requesting employment authorization;
2. An A, G, or NATO nonimmigrant requesting a change to another nonimmigrant status;
3. A nonimmigrant in another status who has been offered a position that requires reclassification as an A, G, or NATO nonimmigrant, and any dependents in another nonimmigrant status; or
4. An A, G, or NATO nonimmigrant requesting adjustment to lawful permanent resident status.

When Should I Use Form I-566?

Use Form I-566 as part of the process to request various benefits that may be available to A, G, or NATO nonimmigrants. Form I-566 provides information needed to identify you, the requestor, and the person from whom your status is, or will be, derived (the principal alien).

NOTE: Each person requesting employment authorization or change/adjustment of status must file a separate Form I-566. You must submit two copies of Form I-566.

Form I-566 assists government agencies and organizations adjudicate applications and petitions for immigration benefits, including requests for employment authorization and change/adjustment of status. The government agencies and organizations involved in the process are:

1. U.S. Department of State (DOS), including the Office of Foreign Missions (DOS OFM), Office of the Chief of Protocol (DOS Protocol), USUN Host Country (DOS USUN), and Visa Office (DOS Visa);
2. North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), Headquarters, Supreme Allied Commander Transformation (HQ SACT);
3. U.S. Department of Defense (DOD), including the United States Liaison Officer (USLO) to NATO/HQ SACT;
4. Foreign diplomatic missions and international organizations; and
5. Department of Homeland Security (DHS), U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

Required Use of Form I-566

You must use this request if you are requesting:

1. Employment authorization as an eligible A-1, A-2, G-1, G-3, G-4, or NATO 1-6 dependent. (You can find definitions and eligibility requirements in 8 CFR sections 214.2(a), 214.2(g), and 214.2(s)); or
2. A change or adjustment of status to or from A, G, or NATO status.

General Instructions

We provide free forms through the USCIS website. To view, print, or complete our forms, you should use the latest version of Adobe Reader, which you can download for free at <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>. If you do not have internet access, you may call the USCIS Contact Center and ask that we mail a form to you.

Signature. You (or your signing authority) must properly complete your application. USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of any signature on this application. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or legal guardian may sign the application on your behalf. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person. If your application is not signed, or if the signature is not valid, we will reject your application. See 8 CFR 103.2(a)(7)(ii)(A). If USCIS accepts a request for adjudication and determines that it has a deficient signature, USCIS may deny the request.

Validity of Signatures. USCIS will consider a photocopied, faxed, or scanned copy of an original handwritten signature as valid for filing purposes. The photocopy, fax, or scan must be of the original document containing the handwritten ink signature.

Filing Fee. See Form G-1055, available at www.uscis.gov/forms, for specific information about the fees applicable to this form.

Evidence. When you file your application, you must submit all evidence and supporting documents listed in the What Evidence Must You Submit and/or Specific Instructions sections of these Instructions.

Biometric Services Appointment. USCIS may require you to appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application or petition. If we determine that a biometric services appointment is necessary, we will send you an appointment notice with the date, time, and location of your appointment. If you are currently overseas, your notice will instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to schedule an appointment.

At your biometrics appointment, you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. You provided or authorized all information in the application;
2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your application; and
3. All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

If you do not attend your biometric services appointment, we may deny your application.

Copies. You should submit legible photocopies of requested documents unless the Instructions specifically instruct you to submit an original document. USCIS may request an original document at any time during our process. If we request an original document from you, we will return it to you after USCIS determines it no longer needs the original.

NOTE: If you submit original documents when they are not required or requested, USCIS may destroy them after we receive them.

Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English. The certification must also include the translator's signature, printed name, the signature date, and the translator's contact information.

USCIS Contact Center. For additional information on the application and Instructions about where to file, change of address, and other questions, visit the USCIS Contact Center at www.uscis.gov/contactcenter or call at 800-375-5283 (TTY 800-767-1833). The USCIS Contact Center provides information in English and Spanish.

Disability Accommodations/Modifications. To request a disability accommodation/modification, follow the instructions on your appointment notice or at www.uscis.gov/accommodationsinfo.

How To Complete Form I-566

1. Type or print legibly in black ink.
2. If you need extra space to complete any item within this request, use the space provided in Part 7. Additional Information or attach a separate sheet of paper. Type or print your name and Alien Registration Number (A-Number) (if any) at the top of each sheet; indicate the Page Number, Part Number, and Item Number to which your answer refers; and sign and date each sheet.
3. Answer all questions fully and accurately. If a question does not apply to you (for example, if you have never been married and the question asks, “Provide the name of your current spouse”), type or print “N/A” unless otherwise directed. If your answer to a question which requires a numeric response is zero or none (for example, “How many children do you have” or “How many times have you departed the United States”), type or print “None” unless otherwise directed.
4. You must submit two copies of Form I-566. USCIS will consider a photocopied, faxed, or scanned copy of the original, handwritten signature valid for filing purposes. The photocopy, fax, or scan must be of the original document containing the handwritten, ink signature. If both copies of Form I-566 are not signed, the agency adjudicating your request will return your Form I-566 as incomplete. A parent or legal guardian may sign, if appropriate.

Specific Instructions

Form I-566 is divided into Parts 1. - 10. The following information will help you fill out the request.

Part 1. Information About You

NOTE: The person seeking employment authorization or change/adjustment of status provides the requested information.

Item Numbers 1.a. - 1.c. Full Legal Name. Provide your legal name as shown on your birth certificate or legal name change document. If you have two last names, include both and use a hyphen (-) between the names, if appropriate. Type or print your last, first, and middle names in each appropriate field.

Item Numbers 2.a. - 2.f. U.S. Mailing Address. Provide the address where you would like to receive written correspondence regarding your application.

Item Numbers 3. - 4.e. U.S. Physical Address. Provide your physical address if it is different from your mailing address.

Item Number 5. Date of Birth. Enter your date of birth in mm/dd/yyyy format in the space provided as shown on your birth certificate or other government-issued identity document. For example, type or print October 5, 1967 as 10/05/1967.

Item Number 6. Country of Birth. Enter the name of the country where you were born. Type or print the name of the country as it was named when you were born, even if the country’s name has changed or the country no longer exists.

Item Number 7. Country of Citizenship or Nationality. Provide the name of the country where you are a citizen and/or national. This is not necessarily the country where you were born. If you do not have citizenship in any country, type or print “stateless” and provide an explanation in Part 7. Additional Information.

Item Number 8. Sex. Indicate whether you are male or female as provided on your birth certificate issued at the time of birth or issued closest to the time of birth or in secondary evidence you provided to USCIS, if applicable.

Item Number 9. Marital Status. Select the box that describes the marital status you have on the date you file Form I-566.

Item Number 10. Alien Registration Number (A-Number) (if any). Provide your A-Number. We use your A-Number to identify your immigration records. It begins with an “A” and can be found on correspondence you have received from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) or USCIS. If you do not have an A-Number, type or print “N/A.” If you have more than one A-Number, use the space provided in Part 7. Additional Information to provide the information.

Item Number 11. U.S. Social Security Number (SSN) (if any). Provide your U.S. Social Security number. If you do not have a U.S. Social Security number, type or print “N/A.”

Item Number 12. Department of State (DOS) Personal Identification Number (PID). DOS provides this number to eligible A and G and certain NATO nonimmigrants. If you are an eligible dependent of a NATO nonimmigrant applying for employment authorization, the PID may be entered by the certifying official.

NOTE: A certifying official is a diplomatic mission chief or authorized deputy, an international organization director or authorized deputy, a NATO member state official, or a NATO/HQ SACT legal advisor or designee who is authorized to certify information about a requestor.

Item Number 13. USCIS Online Account Number. You will only have a USCIS Online Account Number (OAN) if you previously filed a form that has a receipt number that begins with IOE. If you filed the form online, you can find your OAN in your account profile. If you mailed us the form, you can find your OAN at the top of the Account Access Notice we sent you. If you do not have a receipt number that begins with IOE, you do not have an OAN. The OAN is not the same as an A-Number.

Item Number 14. Relationship to Principal Alien (if applicable). Provide your relationship to the principal alien.

NOTE: A principal alien is the nonimmigrant working for a foreign government, international organization, or NATO in A, G, or NATO status from whom family members derive their A, G, or NATO status.

Item Numbers 15.a. - 15.d. Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Record. If U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) or USCIS issued you a Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Record, provide your Form I-94 number and date that your authorized period of stay expires or expired (as shown on your Form I-94). The Form I-94 number also is known as the Departure Number on some versions of Form I-94.

NOTE: You may visit the CBP website at www.cbp.gov/i94 to obtain a paper version of an electronic Form I-94 if needed. If you cannot obtain the Form I-94 from the CBP website, it may be obtained by filing Form I-102, Application for Replacement/Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record, with USCIS. See Form G-1055, available at www.uscis.gov/forms, for specific information about the fees applicable to Form I-102.

Passport and Travel Document Numbers. If you used a passport or travel document to travel to the United States, enter the passport or travel document information in the appropriate space on the request, even if the passport or travel document is currently expired.

Item Number 16. Date of Your Last Arrival Into the United States, On or About. Provide the date on which you last entered the United States in mm/dd/yyyy format.

Item Number 17. Current Immigration Status. Provide your current immigration status. For example, if your current status is principal resident representative (G-1), enter the code G-1 in the space provided.

Part 2. Information About Principal Alien

NOTE: If you are the principal alien and submitting Form I-566 on your own behalf, do not complete this section.

Item Numbers 1.a. - 1.c. Principal Alien’s Full Legal Name. Provide his or her legal name as shown on his or her birth certificate or legal name change document. If he or she has two last names, include both and use a hyphen (-) between the names, if appropriate. Type or print his or her last, first, and middle names in each appropriate field.

Item Numbers 2.a. - 2.e. Principal Alien’s U.S. Physical Address. Type or print his or her physical address in the spaces provided. Do not provide a PO Box here.

Item Number 3. Date Tour of Duty in the United States Expected to End. Provide the date the principal alien's tour of duty in the United States is expected to end in mm/dd/yyyy format.

Item Number 4. Job Title. Provide the principal alien's job title.

Item Number 5. Country of Citizenship or Nationality. Provide the name of the country of his or her citizenship or nationality. Use the current name of the country.

1. If he or she is stateless, type or print the name of the country where he or she was last a citizen or national.
2. If he or she is a citizen or national of more than one country, type or print the name of the foreign country that issued his or her last passport.

Item Number 6. Marital Status. Select the box that describes the marital status he or she has on the date you file Form I-566.

Item Number 7. DOS Personal Identification Number (PID). DOS provides this number to eligible A and G and certain NATO nonimmigrants. If he or she is a NATO nonimmigrant, the certifying officer may enter the DOS PID.

Item Number 8. USCIS Online Account Number. You will only have a USCIS Online Account Number (OAN) if you previously filed a form that has a receipt number that begins with IOE. If you filed the form online, you can find your OAN in your account profile. If you mailed us the form, you can find your OAN at the top of the Account Access Notice we sent you. If you do not have a receipt number that begins with IOE, you do not have an OAN. The OAN is not the same as an A-Number.

Item Numbers 9.a. - 9.d. Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Record. If U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) or USCIS issued him or her a Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Record, provide his or her Form I-94 number and date that his or her authorized period of stay expires or expired (as shown on your Form I-94). The Form I-94 number also is known as the Departure Number on some versions of Form I-94.

NOTE: You may visit the CBP website at www.cbp.gov/i94 to obtain a paper version of an electronic Form I-94 if needed. If you cannot obtain the Form I-94 from the CBP website, it may be obtained by filing Form I-102, Application for Replacement/Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record, with USCIS. See Form G-1055, available at www.uscis.gov/forms, for specific information about the fees applicable to Form I-102.

Passport and Travel Document Numbers. If he or she used a passport or travel document to travel to the United States, enter the passport or travel document information in the appropriate space on the request, even if the passport or travel document is currently expired.

Part 3. Type of Request

Item Number 1. Select the box that best describes your reason for submitting Form I-566. If you select "Employment Authorization," proceed to Item Numbers 2.a. - 2.d. If you select "Change/Adjustment of Status," proceed to Item Numbers 3.a. - 3.b.

NOTE: Form I-566 is not required if you have changed from A or G nonimmigrant status to asylum (protected) status.

Item Numbers 2.a. - 2.d. Requests for Employment Authorization. Select the appropriate box and provide the requested information, if applicable.

Item Numbers 3.a. - 3.b. Requests for Change/Adjustment of Status. Select the appropriate box and provide the requested information, if applicable.

Part 4. Requestor's Contact Information, Certification, and Signature

You must sign and date your request and, if applicable, provide your daytime telephone number, mobile telephone number, and email address. The signature of a parent or legal guardian, if applicable, is acceptable. A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable.

Part 5. Interpreter's Contact Information, Certification, and Signature

If you used anyone as an interpreter to read the Instructions and questions on this request to you in a language in which you are fluent, the interpreter must fill out this section and date the request.

Part 6. Contact Information, Declaration, and Signature of the Person Preparing this Request, if Other Than the Requestor

The person who completed your request, if other than the requestor, must sign this section. If the same individual acted as your interpreter and your preparer, then that person should complete both Part 5. and Part 6. A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable.

Part 7. Additional Information

Item Numbers 1.a. - 7.d. If you need extra space to provide any additional information within this request, use the space provided in Part 7. Additional Information. If you need more space than what is provided in Part 7., you may make copies of Part 7. to complete and file with your request, or attach a separate sheet of paper. Type or print your name and A-Number (if any) at the top of each sheet; indicate the Page Number, Part Number, and Item Number to which your answer refers; and sign and date each sheet.

We recommend that you print or save a copy of your completed request for your records.

NOTE TO ALL REQUESTORS: Do not complete Parts 8., 9., or 10. The agencies and organizations procesing your request will complete these sections.

Part 8. Certification by Diplomatic Mission, International Organization, NATO/HQ SACT, or NATO Member State (For Official Use Only)

Item Numbers 1. - 9.i. Do NOT fill out this part. It is for official use only.

Part 9. DOS, USLO to NATO/HQ SACT, and/or DOS USUN Information (For Official Use Only)

Item Numbers 1.a. - 4.b. Do NOT fill out this part. It is for official use only.

Part 10. USCIS Information (For Official Use Only)

Item Numbers 1.a. - 7.b. Do NOT fill out this part. It is for official use only.

What Evidence Must You Submit?

You must submit all evidence requested in these Instructions with your request. If you fail to submit required evidence, USCIS may reject or deny your request for failure to submit requested evidence or supporting documents in accordance with 8 CFR 103.2(b)(1) and these Instructions.

Dependent Employment Authorization

Your request for employment authorization as an A, G, or NATO dependent may be based on:

1. A formal, written, bilateral agreement between the United States and the country that employs the principal alien;
2. A de facto arrangement between the United States and the country employing the principal alien in which the country requires the principal alien is a national of that country; or

3. The G-4 dependent employment regulations found in 8 CFR 214.2(g).

If one of these provisions applies, you must also show you are an eligible dependent of a principal alien. Eligible dependents are:

1. Spouses or unmarried children under 21 years of age;
2. Dependent unmarried sons or daughters who are full-time, post-secondary students between 21 and 23 years of age (or between 21 and 25 years of age under certain bilateral agreements);
3. Dependent unmarried sons or daughters who are mentally or physically unable to care for themselves and cannot establish their own households; or
4. Other qualifying dependents recognized by DOS (only applicable to dependents of A or G principal aliens).

If you have a question about which provision and dependent category applies to you, or about process or document requirements, contact your diplomatic mission or international organization. If you are a NATO dependent, contact one of the following:

1. USLO to NATO/HQ SACT (if your principal alien spouse or parent is posted at, or attached in support of, NATO/HQ SACT, or posted at a NATO agency in the United States);
2. The Defense Attaché's Office at the embassy of the NATO member employing the principal alien (if your principal alien spouse or parent, including military and civilian employees of the sending nation, is posted throughout the United States on NATO or national orders or employment contract, but not affiliated with NATO/HQ SACT or a NATO agency); or
3. DOS OFM through email at OFM-EAD@state.gov.

NOTE: For details on NATO member embassy contacts and on required documents, visit the DOS website www.state.gov/ofm/accreditation/dwa under the topic "Dependent Work Authorization."

Required Documentation for Dependent Employment Authorization

1. You must include a completed and signed Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization. See the Form I-765 Instructions for required supporting documentation.
2. You must also include the required, supporting documentation listed below with your Form I-566 based on your dependent relationship to the principal alien.
3. If you are filing as a spouse or an unmarried child under 21 years of age:

Where To File?

Please see our website at www.uscis.gov/I-566 for the most current information about where to file this application.

Address Change

If you are not a U.S. citizen, you must notify USCIS of your new address within 10 days of moving from your previous residence. For information on changing your address, go to our website at www.uscis.gov/addresschange, or call the USCIS Contact Center.

NOTE: Do not submit a change of address request to the USCIS Lockbox.

Processing Information

You must have a United States address to file this request.

Initial Processing. Once USCIS accepts your request, we will check it for completeness. If you do not properly complete this request, you will not establish a basis for your eligibility and USCIS may reject or deny your request.

Requests for More Information. USCIS may request that you provide more information or evidence to support your request. We may also request that you provide the originals of any copies you submit. If we request an original document from you, we will return it to you after USCIS determines it is no longer needed.

Requests for Interview. We may request that you appear at a USCIS office for an interview based on your request. During your interview, USCIS may require you to provide your biometrics to verify your identity and/or update background and security checks.

Decision. The decision on Form I-566 involves a determination of whether you have established eligibility for the immigration benefit you are seeking. USCIS will notify you of our decision in writing.

Employment Authorization. If you are an A or G dependent, DOS or USUN will forward your favorably endorsed Form I-566 and I-765 package directly to USCIS. If your Form I-765 is approved, USCIS will provide your employment authorization based on current procedures.

If you have questions regarding the process or document requirements, email OFM-EAD@state.gov.

If a bilateral agreement for dependent employment contains a numerical limitation, the USLO to NATO/HQ SACT, NATO/HQ SACT, or the Defense Attaché's Office at the embassy of the NATO member employing the principal alien will consult with DOS to determine whether this numerical limitation has been reached.

Change/Adjustment of Status. If you are requesting a change of nonimmigrant status TO A, G, or NATO status, the foreign diplomatic mission, international organization, or NATO/HQ SACT will forward your favorably endorsed Form I-566 and Form I-539 package to the DOS/Visa Office or USUN. The DOS/Visa Office or USUN will forward your favorably endorsed Form I-566 and I-539 package to USCIS.

If you are requesting adjustment FROM A, G, or NATO nonimmigrant to immigrant status, a DOS/USUN/USLO to NATO/HQ SACT favorable endorsement is not required prior to USCIS adjudication of the adjustment application. Please see the When Should I Use Form I-566 and What Evidence Must You Submit section of these Instructions.

If you are applying for adjustment of status under 8 U.S.C. 1255b (Section 13 of the Act of September 11, 1957) from A-1, A-2, G-1, or G-2 nonimmigrant to lawful permanent resident, USCIS will forward your favorably endorsed Form I-566 and Form I-485 package to the DOS/Visa Office or USUN, as appropriate. The DOS/Visa Office or USUN will advise USCIS of its official position, provide the dates your status begins and terminates, and state any objections to the requested adjustment under Section 13 of the Act of September 11, 1957.

Penalties

If you knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal a material fact or submit a false document with your Form I-566, we will deny your Form I-566 and may deny any other immigration benefit. In addition, you will face severe penalties provided by law and may be subject to criminal prosecution.

DHS Privacy Notice

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this form, and the associated evidence, is collected under INA sections 101(a)(15) and 103, and 8 CFR sections 214.2 and 274a.12.

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this form is to determine eligibility to request certain immigration benefits, such as dependent employment authorization as an eligible A-1, A-2, G-1, G-3, G-4, or NATO 1-6 dependent or a change or adjustment of status to, or from, A, G or NATO status. DHS uses the information you provide to grant or deny the benefit you are seeking on behalf of the listed beneficiary.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information, including your Social Security number, and any requested evidence, may delay a final decision or result in denial of your form.

ROUTINE USES: DHS may share the information you provide on this form and any additional requested evidence with other Federal, state, local, and foreign government agencies and authorized organizations. DHS follows approved routine uses described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS/USCIS-001 - Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System and DHS/USCIS-007 - Benefits Information System] and the published privacy impact assessment [DHS/USCIS/PIA-003 - Integrated Digitization Document Management Program] which you can find at www.dhs.gov/privacy. DHS may also share the information, as appropriate, for law enforcement purposes or in the interest of national security.

Paperwork Reduction Act

USCIS may not conduct or sponsor an information collection, and you are not required to respond to a collection of information, unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated at 1.2 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, gathering the required documentation and information, completing the request, preparing statements, attaching necessary documentation, and submitting the request. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Office of Policy and Strategy, Regulatory Coordination Division, 5900 Capital Gateway Drive, Mail Stop #2140, Camp Springs, MD 20588-0009; OMB No. 1615-0027. Do not mail your completed Form I-566 to this address.
